SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of:

3 YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: MICHAEL LEE GRAVES
CASE NUMBER: 3:19-CR-00055-001-TMB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: MICHAEL LEE GRAVES
CASE NUMBER: 3:19-CR-00055-001-TMB

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in vocational, educational, and/or cognitive skills programs as directed by the probation officer, which programs may include job readiness training, skills development training, and cognitive skills development training. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any such program.
2. The defendant shall complete 120 hours of community work service during and as a condition of supervision and on a schedule to be determined by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or internet capable device without the expressed written permission of his probation officer. If authorized by the probation officer to have access to a computer device, the defendant shall agree to and allow the installation of monitoring software/hardware on the device(s). The defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any monitoring program. The defendant shall permit routine inspection of his computer device(s) or any other computer system maintained at the defendant's residence to include, but not limited to, external hard-drives, thumb drives, gaming systems, and/or cloud storage under his control. The inspection shall be no more intrusive than is necessary to ensure compliance with the defendant's conditions of supervision. Failure to strictly adhere to this condition may be grounds for revocation.
4. At the direction of the probation officer the defendant shall obtain a mental health assessment and participate in any recommended outpatient mental health treatment. The treatment program must be approved by the United States Probation Office. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
5. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be prohibited to possess or access material or sources reflecting extremist or terroristic views.
6. Upon request of the government, the defendant will participate in the creation of a public service announcement to educate citizens about the illegality of particular weapons, including but not limited to auto selector switches, and the consequences of possessing NFA weapons.
7. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a Federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of supervision.
